

A clear solution
for farmers

CATCHMENT SENSITIVE FARMING

INNOVATION for AGRICULTURE

Join CSF and IfA at a FREE event on

Improving Soil Health, Structure, and use of Cover Crops

Practical interactive workshops with CSF, Nuffield
Scholar Stephen Briggs, and Deborah Crossan of Innovation for Agriculture

13th February 2018, 9.45am – 3.00pm

Marsh Larder, Low Road, Harleston, IP20 9QT

Lunch is provided

Places are limited so booking is essential

Improving Soil Health and Structure

Join Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) and Innovation for Agriculture (IfA) to discuss how to improve soil structure, health and workability using soil assessments and Cover Crops:

- Soil testing for Soil Organic Matter and soil health
- Assessment of soil structure and compaction
- Practical aspects of cover cropping and Strip Tillage
- Innovative ways of establishing cover crops/ companion cropping

10 BASIS points available (tbc)

Booking:

To book a place please call the CSF Farm Events Team on 0208 026 8780 quoting event reference number: EWS364

THE
JC MANN
TRUST