

A clear solution for farmers

CATCHMENT SENSITIVE FARMING

INNOVATION for AGRICULTURE

Join CSF and IfA at a FREE event on Improving Soil Health Using Cover Crops

Practical interactive workshops with CSF and Nuffield Scholar Stephen Briggs of Innovation for Agriculture, Dr Jacqueline Stroud of Rothamsted Research and
Elizabeth Ranelagh of CFE

22nd March 2018, 9.30am – 3.00pm

Weston Village Hall, Weston, Herts, SG4 7AA

*Followed by a farm walk & soil health demo at Weston
Park Farms - Please wear suitable outdoor clothing*

Lunch is provided

Places are limited so booking is essential

Improving Soil Health Using Cover Crops

Join Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) and Innovation for Agriculture (IfA) to discuss how to improve soil structure, health and workability using cover crops including:

- Practical aspects of cover cropping
- Innovative ways of establishing cover crops
- Companion cropping and relay cropping
- Strip tillage

Lunch provided

BASIS points available (number tbc)

Booking:

To book a place please email farm.events@naturalengland.org.uk or call 0208 026 8780 quoting event reference number: WMWS401

For further details please contact Rosie Robinson on

rosemary.robinson@naturalengland.org.uk or 07500 793028

THE
JC MANN
TRUST