

Join CSF and INNOVATION for AGRICULTURE at this FREE event with LUNCH provided

Benefits of Herbal Leys: Soils & Stock health

Date: Thursday January 24th 2019, 10:30 – 3:30pm

Venue: Ripley Town Hall, Ripley, Harrogate, HG3 3AX

Speakers include:

Joe Collins- IfA MSc in Sustainable Cropping, background in both crop and livestock

Sam Lane- Technical Director of Cotswold Seeds, supplying green manures, cover crops and herbal leys, dual purpose long term leys and silage leys.

Angus Gowthorpe- farms 405acre mixed farm in Escrick, N Yorkshire as sustainably as possible

For further information email or book a place

marian.wilby@harrogate.gov.uk or call Nidderdale AONB 01423 712950

Making the most of your soils

10:30 Meet, registration & Coffee

10:40 Introduction & update - CSFO.

10:45 Benefits of herbal leys to soil health (physical, Chem biological)

11.15 Herbal Leys, establishment, management & grazing, mob grazing, what when, why and how

11:30 Sam Lane Cotswold seeds application and various options

12:15 Discussion and questions

12:30 Lunch.

13:00 Farmer's Perspective Angus Gowthorpe, from Eskrick N Yorkshire

14.00 Questions

14:30 Depart.

BASIS points available

Booking

To book a place please go to: <https://harrogate24jan.eventbrite.co.uk> or phone CSFO Marian Wilby 01423 712950/ 07713333187

Booking details will be taken by CSF & IfA via Eventbrite.

Natural England takes looking after your data as seriously as we take looking after the environment. Your data is only used by us so we can email, call, write or text you about our Catchment Sensitive Farming work. This will include advice, access to grants, events and campaigns. We hope you want to hear from us but you can change your preferences or mind at any time by emailing us on catchmentsensitivefarming@naturalengland.org.uk.

For more information: <http://bit.ly/csfpriacy>.

Natural England's Information Charter: <http://bit.ly/naturalenglandinfo>